Re: i2Poly, Inc. d/b/a 4RAM Polymers and

related entities Case 13-CA-305885

Dear (b) (6), (b) (7)(C)

Enclosed is a copy of a charge that has been filed in this case. This letter tells you how to contact the Board agent who will be investigating the charge, explains your right to be represented, discusses presenting your evidence, and provides a brief explanation of our procedures, including how to submit documents to the NLRB.

Investigator: This charge is being investigated by Field Examiner Christopher J. Lee whose telephone number is (312)353-9777 and email address is Christopher.Lee@nlrb.gov. If this Board agent is not available, you may contact Supervisor Field Examiner Joyce Ann Trejo whose telephone number is (312)353-7609.

Right to Representation: You have the right to be represented by an attorney or other representative in any proceeding before us. If you choose to be represented, your representative must notify us in writing of this fact as soon as possible by completing Form NLRB-4701, Notice of Appearance. This form is available on our website, www.nlrb.gov, or from an NLRB office upon your request.

If you are contacted by someone about representing you in this case, please be assured that no organization or person seeking your business has any "inside knowledge" or favored relationship with the National Labor Relations Board. Their knowledge regarding this proceeding was only obtained through access to information that must be made available to any member of the public under the Freedom of Information Act.

Presentation of Your Evidence: We seek prompt resolutions of labor disputes. Therefore, I urge you or your representative to submit a complete written account of the facts and a statement of your position with respect to the allegations set forth in the by November 9, 2022. If the Board agent later asks for more evidence, I strongly urge you or your representative to cooperate fully by promptly presenting all evidence relevant to the investigation. In this way, the case can be fully investigated more quickly.

Full and complete cooperation includes providing witnesses to give sworn affidavits to a Board agent, and providing all relevant documentary evidence requested by the Board agent. Sending us your written account of the facts and a statement of your position is not enough to be considered full and complete cooperation. A refusal to fully cooperate during the investigation might cause a case to be litigated unnecessarily.

In addition, either you or your representative must complete the enclosed Commerce Questionnaire to enable us to determine whether the NLRB has jurisdiction over this dispute. If you recently submitted this information in another case, or if you need assistance completing the form, please contact the Board agent.

We will not honor requests to limit our use of position statements or evidence. Specifically, any material you submit may be introduced as evidence at a hearing before an administrative law judge regardless of claims of confidentiality. However, certain evidence produced at a hearing may be protected from public disclosure by demonstrated claims of confidentiality.

Further, the Freedom of Information Act may require that we disclose position statements or evidence in closed cases upon request, unless an exemption applies, such as those protecting confidential financial information or personal privacy interests.

Preservation of all Potential Evidence: Please be mindful of your obligation to preserve all relevant documents and electronically stored information (ESI) in this case, and to take all steps necessary to avoid the inadvertent loss of information in your possession, custody or control. Relevant information includes, but is not limited to, paper documents and all ESI (e.g. SMS text messages, electronic documents, emails, and any data created by proprietary software tools) related to the above-captioned case.

Prohibition on Recording Affidavit Interviews: It is the policy of the General Counsel to prohibit affiants from recording the interview conducted by Board agents when subscribing Agency affidavits. Such recordings may impede the Agency's ability to safeguard the confidentiality of the affidavit itself, protect the privacy of the affiant and potentially compromise the integrity of the Region's investigation.

Correspondence: All documents submitted to the Region regarding your case MUST be filed through the Agency's website, www.nlrb.gov. This includes all formal pleadings, briefs, as well as affidavits, documentary evidence, and position statements. The Agency requests all evidence submitted electronically to be in the form it is normally used and maintained in the course of business (i.e., native format). Where evidence submitted electronically is not in native format, it should be submitted in a manner that retains the essential functionality of the native format (i.e., in a machine-readable and searchable electronic format).

If you have questions about the submission of evidence or expect to deliver a large quantity of electronic records, please promptly contact the Board agent investigating the charge. If you cannot e-file your documents, you must provide a statement explaining why you do not have access to the means for filing electronically or why filing electronically would impose an undue burden.

In addition, this Region will be issuing case-related correspondence and documents, including complaints, compliance specifications, dismissal letters, deferral letters, and withdrawal letters, electronically to the email address you provide. To ensure that you receive important case-related correspondence, please ensure that the Board Agent assigned to your case has your preferred email address. These steps will ensure that you receive correspondence faster and at a significantly lower cost to the taxpayer. If there is some reason you are unable to receive correspondence via email, please contact the agent assigned to your case to discuss the circumstances that prevent you from using email.

Controlled Unclassified Information (CUI): This National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) proceeding may contain Controlled Unclassified Information (CUI). Subsequent information in this proceeding may also constitute CUI. National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) regulations at 32 CFR Part 2002 apply to all executive branch agencies that designate or handle information that meets the standards for CUI.

Information about the Agency, the procedures we follow in unfair labor practice cases and our customer service standards is available on our website, www.nlrb.gov or from an NLRB office upon your request. NLRB Form 4541, Investigative Procedures offers information that is helpful to parties involved in an investigation of an unfair labor practice charge.

We can provide assistance for persons with limited English proficiency or disability. Please let us know if you or any of your witnesses would like such assistance.

Very truly yours,

Angie Cowan Hamada Regional Director

NOTICE OF FEDERAL MEDIATION AND CONCILIATION SERVICES FOR BAD FAITH BARGAINING ALLEGATIONS

Under the National Labor Relations Act, both the employer and union have a number of obligations under the law, including the duty to bargain in good faith.

We encourage you to take advantage of the following resources from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS) (www.fmcs.gov). FMCS is a non-regulatory, independent federal agency, separate from the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB), whose mission is to preserve and promote labor-management peace and cooperation. FMCS services include:

- Mediation, if you need assistance and support with your contract negotiations (available at https://www.fmcs.gov/services/resolving-labor-management-disputes/collectivebargaining-mediation/);
- Skills development training for collective-bargaining negotiation, committee effectiveness, and conflict resolution (available at https://www.fmcs.gov/services/education-andoutreach/skills-development-training/);
- Education on contract administration (available at https://www.fmcs.gov/services/buildinglabor-management-relationships/).

Education on contract administration (available at FMCS is a Congressionally funded agency offering support to both unions and employers at workplaces and these FMCS services and resources are provided at no cost. FMCS services are customized to the specific needs of employer and union leadership groups and FMCS is available to assist with next steps and/or answer questions that come up throughout a collective-bargaining agreement negotiation process, as well as for future stages of a labor-management relationship.).

For more information on the full range of FMCS services and how these services can be helpful throughout various stages of the collective bargaining process, see OM 22-08. To discuss the specific needs of your group, please reach out to an FMCS mediator (https://www.fmcs.gov/aboutus/locations/find-a-mediator/) or by phone at (202) 606-8100.

Dear Sir or Madam:

The charge that you filed in this case on October 25, 2022 has been docketed as case number 13-CA-305885. This letter tells you how to contact the Board agent who will be investigating the charge, explains your right to be represented, discusses presenting your evidence, and provides a brief explanation of our procedures, including how to submit documents to the NLRB.

Investigator: This charge is being investigated by Field Examiner Christopher J. Lee whose telephone number is (312)353-9777 and email address is Christopher.Lee@nlrb.gov. If this Board agent is not available, you may contact Supervisor Field Examiner Joyce Ann Trejo whose telephone number is (312)353-7609.

Right to Representation: You have the right to be represented by an attorney or other representative in any proceeding before us. If you choose to be represented, your representative must notify us in writing of this fact as soon as possible by completing Form NLRB-4701, Notice of Appearance. This form is available on our website, www.nlrb.gov, or from an NLRB office upon your request.

If you are contacted by someone about representing you in this case, please be assured that no organization or person seeking your business has any "inside knowledge" or favored relationship with the National Labor Relations Board. Their knowledge regarding this proceeding was only obtained through access to information that must be made available to any member of the public under the Freedom of Information Act.

Presentation of Your Evidence: As the party who filed the charge in this case, it is your responsibility to meet with the Board agent to provide a sworn affidavit, or provide other witnesses to provide sworn affidavits, and to provide relevant documents within your possession. Because we seek to resolve labor disputes promptly, you should be ready to promptly present your affidavit(s) and other evidence. If you have not yet scheduled a date and time for the Board agent to take your affidavit, please contact the Board agent to schedule the affidavit(s). If you fail to cooperate in promptly presenting your evidence, your charge may be dismissed without investigation.

Preservation of all Potential Evidence: Please be mindful of your obligation to preserve all relevant documents and electronically stored information (ESI) in this case, and to take all steps necessary to avoid the inadvertent loss of information in your possession, custody or control. Relevant information includes, but is not limited to, paper documents and all ESI (e.g. SMS text messages, electronic documents, emails, and any data created by proprietary software tools) related to the above-captioned case.

Prohibition on Recording Affidavit Interviews: It is the policy of the General Counsel to prohibit affiants from recording the interview conducted by Board agents when subscribing Agency affidavits. Such recordings may impede the Agency's ability to safeguard the confidentiality of the affidavit itself, protect the privacy of the affiant and potentially compromise the integrity of the Region's investigation.

Correspondence: All documents submitted to the Region regarding your case MUST be filed through the Agency's website, www.nlrb.gov. This includes all formal pleadings, briefs, as well as affidavits, documentary evidence, and position statements. The Agency requests all evidence submitted electronically to be in the form it is normally used and maintained in the course of business (i.e., native format). Where evidence submitted electronically is not in native format, it should be submitted in a manner that retains the essential functionality of the native format (i.e., in a machine-readable and searchable electronic format).

If you have questions about the submission of evidence or expect to deliver a large quantity of electronic records, please promptly contact the Board agent investigating the charge. If you cannot e-file your documents, you must provide a statement explaining why you do not have access to the means for filing electronically or why filing electronically would impose an undue burden.

In addition, this Region will be issuing case-related correspondence and documents, including complaints, compliance specifications, dismissal letters, deferral letters, and withdrawal letters, electronically to the email address you provide. To ensure that you receive important case-related correspondence, please ensure that the Board Agent assigned to your case has your preferred email address. These steps will ensure that you receive correspondence faster and at a significantly lower cost to the taxpayer. If there is some reason you are unable to receive correspondence via email, please contact the agent assigned to your case to discuss the circumstances that prevent you from using email.

Controlled Unclassified Information (CUI): This National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) proceeding may contain Controlled Unclassified Information (CUI). Subsequent information in this proceeding may also constitute CUI. National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) regulations at 32 CFR Part 2002 apply to all executive branch agencies that designate or handle information that meets the standards for CUI.

NOTICE OF FEDERAL MEDIATION AND CONCILIATION SERVICES FOR BAD FAITH BARGAINING ALLEGATIONS

Under the National Labor Relations Act, both the employer and union have a number of obligations under the law, including the duty to bargain in good faith.

We encourage you to take advantage of the following resources from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS) (www.fmcs.gov). FMCS is a non-regulatory, independent federal agency, separate from the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB), whose mission is to preserve and promote labor-management peace and cooperation. FMCS services include:

- Mediation, if you need assistance and support with your contract negotiations (available at https://www.fmcs.gov/services/resolving-labor-management-disputes/collectivebargaining-mediation/);
- Skills development training for collective-bargaining negotiation, committee effectiveness, and conflict resolution (available at https://www.fmcs.gov/services/education-andoutreach/skills-development-training/);
- Education on contract administration (available at https://www.fmcs.gov/services/buildinglabor-management-relationships/).

Education on contract administration (available at FMCS is a Congressionally funded agency offering support to both unions and employers at workplaces and these FMCS services and resources are provided at no cost. FMCS services are customized to the specific needs of employer and union leadership groups and FMCS is available to assist with next steps and/or answer questions that come up throughout a collective-bargaining agreement negotiation process, as well as for future stages of a labor-management relationship.).

For more information on the full range of FMCS services and how these services can be helpful throughout various stages of the collective bargaining process, see OM 22-08. To discuss the specific needs of your group, please reach out to an FMCS mediator (https://www.fmcs.gov/aboutus/locations/find-a-mediator/) or by phone at (202) 606-8100.

Re: i2Poly, Inc. d/b/a 4RAM Polymers and

related entities Case 13-CA-305885

Dear Ms. Dyer:

We have carefully investigated and considered your charge that i2Poly, Inc. d/b/a 4RAM Polymers and related entities has violated the National Labor Relations Act.

Decision to Dismiss: Plastic Workers Union Local #18, AFL-CIO has alleged that i2Poly, Inc., d/b/a 4RAM Polymers and its entities has failed to recognize and bargain with the Union as the exclusive collective bargaining representative of the predecessor's employees. However, the evidence shows that the Employer employs approximately 49 employees, 14 of which were the predecessor's employees. Therefore, while it is arguable that the Employer has achieved a representative complement, since more than 30% of the anticipated workforce has been hired, and it appears that most of the classifications are filled, the evidence demonstrates that the predecessor's employees do not make up a majority of the workforce. Accordingly, the Employer is not a successor employer, and it did not violate the Act by refusing to recognize or bargain with the Union under the standards set forth in Fall River Dyeing & Finishing Corp., v. NLRB, 482 U.S. 27 at 41-43, 48-49 (1987).

Charging Party's Right to Appeal: The Charging Party may appeal my decision to the General Counsel of the National Labor Relations Board, through the Office of Appeals.

Means of Filing: You must file your appeal electronically or provide a written statement explaining why electronic submission is not possible or feasible. Written instructions for the NLRB's E-Filing system and the Terms and Conditions of the NLRB's E-Filing policy are available at www.nlrb.gov. See User Guide. A video demonstration which provides step-by-step instructions and frequently asked questions are also available at www.nlrb.gov. If you require additional assistance with E-Filing, please contact e-Filing@nlrb.gov.

You are encouraged to also submit a complete statement of the facts and reasons why you believe my decision was incorrect. If you cannot file electronically, please send the appeal and your written explanation of why you cannot file electronically to the General Counsel at the National Labor Relations Board, Attn: Office of Appeals, 1015 Half Street SE, Washington, DC 20570-0001. Unless filed electronically, a copy of the appeal should also be sent to me. The main telephone number for the Office of Appeals is (202)273-3760.

The appeal MAY NOT be filed by fax or email. The Office of Appeals will not process faxed or emailed appeals.

Appeal Due Date: The appeal is due on July 6, 2023. If the appeal is filed electronically, the transmission of the entire document through the Agency's website must be completed no later than 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time on the due date. If filing by mail or by delivery service an appeal will be found to be timely filed if it is postmarked or given to a delivery service no later than July 5, 2023. If an appeal is postmarked or given to a delivery service on the due date, it will be rejected as untimely. If hand delivered, an appeal must be received by the General Counsel in Washington D.C. by 5:00 p.m. Eastern Time on the appeal due date. If an appeal is not submitted in accordance with this paragraph, it will be rejected.

Extension of Time to File Appeal: The General Counsel may allow additional time to file the appeal if the Charging Party provides a good reason for doing so and the request for an extension of time is received on or before July 6, 2023. The request may be filed electronically through the E-File Documents link on our website www.nlrb.gov, by fax to (202)273-4283, by mail, or by delivery service. The General Counsel will not consider any request for an extension of time to file an appeal received after July 6, 2023, even if it is postmarked or given to the delivery service before the due date. Unless filed electronically, a copy of the extension of time should also be sent to me.

Confidentiality: We will not honor requests to limit our use of appeal statements or evidence. Upon a request under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) by a party during the processing of an appeal, the Agency's FOIA Branch discloses appeal statements, redacted for personal privacy, confidential source protection, or other applicable FOIA exemptions. In the event the appeal is sustained, any statement or material submitted may be introduced as evidence at a hearing before an administrative law judge. However, certain evidence produced at a hearing may be protected from public disclosure by demonstrated claims of confidentiality.

Very truly yours,

/s/Angie Cowan Hamada
